

SUBMISSION FORM 2019

Curriculum vitae

Name, address, email, telephone number

Date of birth

Educational background (250 characters; including date of graduation as DVM)

Working experience (250 characters)

Languages

English	writing:	speaking:
Other languages:	writing:	speaking:

Field of interest in ruminant research (250 characters)

Other relevant information (250 characters)

Plans

Planned time-frame for the educational stay

Plan for the educational stay:

What will be done in order to broaden the knowledge (research plans, courses, etc.)

(1000 characters)

Name, address, email, telephone number of supervisor

Note: Application without supervisor is possible. The board of the fund may help to bring candidates in contact with a supervisor.

Budget plan for the educational stay. What costs will be made and what will the grant be used for? Explain how other expenses will be covered (e.g. whether housing can be arranged by your supervisor) (500 characters)

If available, please give title of a presentation (oral or poster) at the next congress, that will take place at Den Bosch, the Netherlands, during the European Bovine Congress (11-13th Septembere 2019).

What is your motivation to apply for the GRMF grant? (500 characters)

How will the educational stay help in improving bovine medicine in your home country? (500 characters)

Name, address, email, telephone number of reference – not being your supervisor- that can be contacted for further information

Please attach:

- two different high quality pictures of yourself that could be used for communication purposes
- a letter of reference by the supposed supervisor (if supervisor is available)